Franklin Sanders on Jailhouse Ministry - Feb. 13

"The angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life." ~ Acts 5:19-20

Jailhouse Ministries and Local Economics with Franklin Sanders

February 20

UFO's for 21st Century Minds with Richard Dolan

Every week, Franklin Sanders, in his capacity as Presbyter of Christ Our Hope Church in Westport, Tennessee leads a team from the church congregation to the local jail in Lawrence County, Tennessee to minister the gospel.

Franklin's experience in tending spiritually to people in the local jail is of great importance to each and every one of us.

As automation and globalization has reduced manual labor jobs, the United States as a matter of policy has shifted many of the people who used to fill those jobs into prison.

I have described the early years of this policy in my online book, Dillon Read & Co. Inc and the Aristocracy of Stock Profits. If we look at the complete package of policies that has resulted in America having the highest documented incarceration rate in the world, what emerges is an economic and enforcement model that is frightening in its implications.

The question for each one of us is, "what can I do?" At the heart of taking action are questions regarding what it takes to help people rebuild – including people who have given up, lack skills and good habits or have a record of hurting others. What is involved in a person rebuilding their humanity, their character, their skills and their local economies?

It takes great faith to walk into the middle of a county jail to begin.

It appears as if the bears have awakened from their winter slumber. The question on everyone's mind should be was that it and are they going to hit the snooze button and fall back asleep.

Letter to the Mayor of Syracuse

I am writing to request that you ask your staff to investigate the case of Syracuse resident Calvin James and ensure that the actions taken in this situation reflect a municipality committed to the success of citizens

Franklin joins me this week on the Solari Report to talk about his jailhouse ministry and connect the dots between rebuilding people and rebuilding local economies.

We will also post my Money & Markets on Thursday, so please post your questions for Ask Catherine.

In Let's Go to the Movies, I will review The House I Live In, Eugene Jarecki's documentary about the war on drugs and how it has created the explosive growth in the US prison complex.

and their local economy.

Just A Taste - False Sunrise

Get a "taste" of The Solari Report with this video excerpt from last week's report:

"It's morning in America, everything's wonderful! It reminds me about talking with a reporter who was covering the missing money. There was 4 trillion dollars missing from the federal government in the late 90's and early 2000's. We had huge deficits and the next day everything was fine."

Highlights from Last Week's Report

"We've been having a wonderful conversation on The Solari Report about the breakaway civilization, and tonight I wanted to discuss oligarchies and their fronts. That was Joseph's wonderful suggestion. We wanted to illuminate how the governance structure works, to see if we can't understand a little bit more about it."
