

THE SOLARI REPORT

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to The Solari Report.

Today is June 09, 2016.

I am Catherine Austin Fitts and I am delighted that you could join me this evening.

EVENTS –

Zurich and Lake Constance in the second half of July, with one-day trip to Amsterdam. If anyone wants to have a lunch, let me know!

THEME TONIGHT:

Mirror, Mirror on the Wall, Who is the Fairest of Them All?

Mirror, Mirror on the Wall, Who is the Fairest of Them All?

Deep ignorance:

1. Thinks general population is ignorant – does not understand 10% and the field
2. Does not see the full game, just their piece
3. Major Reality Gap: Pretending financial coup was a financial crisis – living in the bubble
4. Major Reality Gap: No concept of the harm done to generate their cheap cost of capital

Exacerbated by Clinton

- Why we want to have Wayne Madsen Soft Revolution and Dr. Dady Chery – Haitian – help you understand the tactics being used both here and abroad.

Book Review: "We Have Dared to Be Free" by Dr. Dady Chery

Establishment say FY to the productive members general population. Global establishment does not understand – lacking a mirror.

Reminds me of the Kemp Tapes – info to set me up. Instead got a mirror. Results I suspect were quite sobering. Our lies often blind the liars – forget what the truth is.

Money and Markets

BREXIT

Neck and Neck – Economist polls at top of Geopolitical 43% leave -42 stay.

Rich want to stay; Poor want to leave – ANTI-
CENTRALIZATION; Anti immigration
Will be followed by Scotland

Scotland is for staying but if UK leaves, with Scotland leave UK?

Big concerns for Europe financial system- Teutonic plates shift, not just in Europe, but in US

PEW STUDY ON WEBSITE - The institution's strongest backers are the Poles (72%) and the Hungarians (61%). In many other nations, support is tepid. Just 27% of the Greeks, 38% of the French and 47% of the Spanish have a favorable opinion of the EU. Notably, 44% of the British view the EU favorably, including 53% of the Scottish.

Productive members of the general population are fed up with things that lower their productivity and skim and steal their savings. Gripes of productive members of the general population are legitimate. Their cultures reflect deep understanding of productive habits- they appreciate what the assault on their culture means.

Australia establishment – could not fathom the corruption that US general population is experiencing.

Brexit would come on top of slow down.

World Bank has now joined OECD, Japan and IMF in warning of global slowdown

The World Bank has issued a dismal outlook for the global economy, warning of a rising risk of a sharp slowdown as it cut growth forecasts across the globe.

Poverty Extended: The weak-growth era has pushed back the time it will take emerging and frontier markets to catch up with the U.S.

GDP per capita, delaying it 30-70 years.

Number of years to catch up to 2014 U.S. GDP per capita, by country grouping and base year of projection

NOTE: CONVERGANCE IS AN ASIAN PHENOMEMON – not happening elsewhere

Crisis Legacies: Advanced economies are still struggling to escape from debt problems, spur investment and give markets confidence about future growth. Bad loans in Europe, for example, weigh on lending.

SEE: SECOND QUARTER WRAP UP FOR WHAT IS REALLY HAPPENING

Economically Impolitic: Political tensions in the U.S., Europe and across the globe are driving market uncertainty and dampening investment.

Politics has ended danger zone

Example: VAXXED – 1 out 2 by 2032; 80% of boys; 4X African American cutting of capital to small business; massive increase in regulatory burden on small business. VAXXED Mother – autistic child is $5MM hit on family. In process of hiring an attorney to make sure child is her ward at 18 instead of ward of state – building institutions

Exporter Blues: While emerging-market commodity importers appear to be weathering global economic turbulence, exporters face deepening budget deficits.

Other warnings: JP Morgan, Goldman – and this is a serious UH OH

– Kiplinger = master of the flow burn

Markets:

US Dollar Index 93.99 - -4.82 – remember we are trading in a band 92-100 – if we break 92 and stay below, we are in a new period.

TLT +12.35

IEF +5.96%

AGG +4.14

JNK 7.43 (baffling!)

SPY +4.56 – forward earnings and debt

US Real Estate +7.14 – sector change

US Homebuilder 0.86

Keep going through convention- can you continue through election? Not sure. Fundamentals are poor.

VGK +5.73

EWG Germany -0.69

EFA +0.24

FXI -2.13 MSCI decision coming up

June 15 will be a significant day for mainland Chinese stock markets – MSCI will decide whether to include A shares into its Emerging Market Index, after first considering the matter in 2014.

HAO -7.98

EEM +6.87

OIL +8.03

GREG PALAST – and story from a wealthy SF suburb
4/12 at 7am- seniors

Here is likely why cutting seniors:

From 'The Intercept

President Barack Obama endorsed an expansion of Social Security for the first time on Wednesday.

“We can’t afford to weaken Social Security,” he said during a speech on economic policy in Elkhart, Indiana. “We should be strengthening Social Security. And not only do we need to strengthen its long-term health, it’s time we finally made Social Security more generous, and increased its benefits so that today’s retirees and future generations get the dignified retirement that they’ve earned.”

The increased benefits, he said, could be paid for “by asking the wealthiest Americans to contribute a little bit more. They can afford it. I can afford it.”

This was a far cry from Obama’s position on the program in late 2012, when his administration argued for reducing Social Security benefits by recalculating the way cost of living adjustments are made.

“President Obama’s evolution on Social Security, from at one time being open to cuts to calling for an expansion of benefits ... is certainly welcome news, but not at all surprising,” said Alex Lawson, the executive director of Social Security Works, a nonprofit group that advocates for protecting and expanding the program.

Lawson’s organization has worked with lawmakers and other nonprofit organizations to oppose Obama’s proposed Social Security cuts and shift the conversation towards expansion. By the summer of 2014, a small group of Democratic caucus senators, led by Sen. Bernie Sanders, started advocating for lifting Social Security’s payroll tax cap so wealthier people paid more into the system, and then increasing benefits to seniors. Polling by advocacy groups found broad support for expansion.

MARKET’S PUMPING, MEDIA PUMPING and signs of election fraud – Deep State pulled all the stops out for

Clinton- lends credence to the theory that Trump is being used to white out Republicans and make Clinton look acceptable.

Meantime, Trump fell in his own mess of the judge in the Trump University trial

If that is the case, Trump will be used to gather up grump white men many of whom are the most productive members of American society and economy and put them offside. He is going to have to beat that trap- currently looks like little chance that he will figure it out in time.

Have to see how it plays out – best we can hope for is transparency

From Financial Times – Lunch with James Baker

“Hillary Clinton was never given anything to do. She was just there [at the state department] to run for president,” says Baker.

“I won’t get my panties in a wedge because of what I am hearing from the political candidates. What they say in the campaign and what they do once they are in the White House are not the same thing. I don’t care who wins, whoever gets to the White House. Presidents can do a lot but they can only do so much through the system of checks and balances. “We are a country of laws, limited by bureaucracy and the power structure in Washington. Presidents are not unilateral rulers. If they did not know that, they will find out soon enough.”

TRANSLATION: THIS IS ENTERTAINMENT. THESE PEOPLE ARE PUPPETS AND WILL DO WHAT WE TELL THEM TO DO.

Good news – Peggy Noonan of the WSJ invited to Bilderbergers - perhaps will have a platform to give legitimate feedback about destruction of productivity

Read anecdote

As noted above, the official list of "key topics" to be discussed is both broad quite vague and includes:

1. Current events
2. China
3. Europe: migration, growth, reform, vision, unity
4. Middle East
5. Russia
6. US political landscape, economy: growth, debt, reform
7. Cyber security
8. Geo-politics of energy and commodity prices
9. Precariat and middle class

Technological innovation

Other good news – Sanders saying he will take it all the way to the convention

ASK CATHERINE

Thanks for Links to Articles and Documentaries

Recommendations for 40-50 books and documentaries a month- try to read and watch a lot

One good one that I put up: Incontrovertible about Building Seven done by Tony Rook – available for free – well worth watching. More time goes by the more I see 911 as critical to destroying records trail on financial coup – Solomon was in Building 7 along with SEC and other government offices of agencies investigation fraud. Solomon sold by Buffet to Travelers who then merged with Citibank – so Buffet and Citibanks government and mortgage securities through 2001.

Hi Catherine;

1) I've recently received and have enjoyed reading the Solari Report entitled, "Space: Here we Go. Global Investment Takes Off."

I am hoping that you can continue to focus on the most promising companies that merit a closer look from a prospective investment standpoint.

What plans do you have in that regard and what can Solari offer to further assist subscribers 'operationalize' this information about "3.0" and the movement in the direction of the Space economy ?

2) From a more terrestrial perspective, I continue to read with great interest (particularly in non-US press) about the increasingly great strides being made to consolidate the efforts of European and Asian economic interests, as manifest in the "New Silk Road" infrastructure mega-project.

So, I'm also wondering if you have been able to accomplish anything similar as you have done "Space/3.0" with the with respect to the "New Silk Road" ?

If not immediately, do you agree that this would be a fruitful area for devoting time, effort and study ?

In follow-up to prior question, as below, the following link (the ultimate credibility of the source notwithstanding);

<https://geopolitics.co/2016/06/03/chinas-1-trillion-new-silk-road-investment-gets-frontal-canadian-media-insults/>

Greetings:

The link below from David Stockman (no implicit endorsement of credibility, reliability or authenticity ; although one his major touts is that "David Stockman is the ultimate Washington insider turned iconoclast. He began his career in Washington as a young man and quickly rose through the ranks of the Republican Party to become the Director of the Office of Management and Budget under President Ronald Reagan. After leaving the White House, Stockman had a 20-year career on Wall Street.")

This type of data reminds me of a similar genre' of data available via John Williams (<http://www.shadowstats.com/article/house-financial-services-hearing>) and his website <http://www.shadowstats.com/>) which appears to be very well considered and thoughtful.

I would be interested to hear your views on the tension between "Government Statistics vs. "Shadow Statistics" ala John Williams, et. al; which in my experience is often at the heart of the inability to conduct an intelligent discussion between a principal and a current or prospective asset manager or investment advisor, each of which parties may be utilizing thus resulting in a vastly different perspective and reference points, fundamentally conditioned by which data the particular party may be relying upon.

Indeed , many "mainstream" investment commentators; and certainly the mainstream financial media present information that is predominately relying upon government and/or "big business" economic data and reporting.

Does this fit into a variant or another form of "fear porn" ? Who is to be believed ?

Please expound

Williams does a great job, I am a subscriber. However, misses the black budget side, so makes predictions that do not follow from his stats such as collapse of the US dollar

Greetings

I apologize for the relative disorganization of this inquiry, but the Question(s) engendered here are so broad sweeping and diverse, that I suppose the best way for the issues to be posed is enumerate the various sub-issues, and then to "free associate" via a number of different news snippets from both mainstream and 'alternative media; and to rely on your astute ability to synthesize the composite issue in your weekly discourse on the Solari Report, as a mixture of what is known factually and some "high octane speculation"

The basic issues that appear to be part of the background "mosaic" of "The China Question(s)" include, but are not limited to:

- + Gold paper vs. physical; COMEX v. Shanghai Gold exchange v Chinese acquisition of London Gold Fix Seat
- + Chinese Banking vs. Western Banking: Link to "Derivative Bomb"
- + China's enormous "internal "debt, "Bubble economy;" and "Ghost Cities" vs. The West's massive sovereign/external Debt and related Derivative Bombs; Housing (again), Auto, Credit Card and Student Loans
- + CHY v USD; rapidly changing markets share in global trade; IMF-SDR; China's Gold-Backed, Reserve Currency, New World Currency
- + Chinese Banks Acquire Key Assets of Western Banks (strongly linked to derivative exposure), especially their real estate and gold-vaults
- + Possible Re-capitalization of Western Banks (? possibly via leased Chinese-owned gold, currently located in [formerly] Western banks' vaults) via sudden, discontinuous rise in Gold/Silver prices (somewhat analogous to FDR's Maneuver to seize gold at $20 and re-price at $32, as well as initially endow Exchange Stabilization Fund, aka Plunge Protection Team

+ The true internal Chinese fundamental economy vs. Chinese stock markets vs, Chinese-led Infrastructure Mega-Projects (e.g., New Silk Road)

+ Link to Other Chinese Global Financial and Industrial initiatives (Mining and Infrastructure in South America and Africa (esp. South Africa , link to SA Rand, and the [currently shuttered] SA Gold Mines)

+ Belligerent under- and overtones in the South China Sea "pivot" /Hainan -- Chinese and Russian weapons systems (? superiority of "conventional" weapons?) vs. US/NATO weapons systems (? space-based weapons ?) as a proxy for enforcement/sustainment of Western Vs Eastern Economic/Currency Dominance --Potential for "false Flag" (? is there really cooperation "behind the scenes" on behalf of Mr. Global)

Massive Cooperation behind the scenes – strongly read Roche's Unbalanced.

Build out of global gold inventories and trading system – building up to something

Space build

Chinese building out military and space activities and financial systems to support build out of global currency

Tension – use savings to supply and build up US or independence and silk road.

Loyalty of US trading partners as size of China trade passes US with partner

Whose infrastructure; whose equity?

Erratum: below FDR's Maneuver to seize gold at $20 and re-price at $35 (not $32),

Hi Catherine, I wanted to tell you how I manage watering plants. I use a pendulum and ask the plant if it wants water. It takes the guess work out of it.

Love, Peace, Freedom,

Prototyping EMF protection with Jason Bawden Smith during Spring-Massive orchid revival -

Dear Catherine:

Within our media there seems to be a hierarchy of how things operate. It appears that the prestigious national news networks and media are the only ones who can break national news stories to everyone, and then the local news outlets can only repeat these same stories, while remaining focused on delivering the local news. Is this your understanding of how our media system operates?

I don't have an understanding of how the media operates. It is true that the local papers are essentially simply reprinting what centralized systems feed them – surprisingly little local news. If a media source is not credible, I don't use it other than to track what the pro-centralization team is doing. Some are in the middle – such as the economist and WSJ – good coverage of overt economy in the official reality – still a big part of the economy – so useful.

Most important statistic –people working in online media surpassed traditional media

Most of the problems happening in this world would not be happening without propaganda, mind control and corrupt media, so recommend you lose all interest in them and what they do. Most powerful act you can take.

Let's Go to the Movies

In Let's Go to the Movies, I will review the film 13 Hours about the six soldiers (as contractors, they were referred to as “security operators”) who fought to protect the US State Department Special Mission Compound and a nearby CIA station in Benghazi on September 11, 2012. The US Ambassador to Libya J. Christopher Stevens died in the attack along with his information officer Sean Smith and two soldiers, Glen Doherty and Tyrone Woods, both former Navy Seals. The unanswered questions about the events of that evening as well as the destruction of Libya continue to plague both US foreign policy and relations. The film is also a reminder of the reliance of the US on current and former special forces officers given a military stretched globally and why the chances of an institution of a draft after the Presidential election are rising.

Still trying to figure out what happened. One allegation that they were laundering in Libyan arms to Syria. Story here.

American Sniper – one of the most depressing movies I have every watched, in part because I believe the US government likely had him killed over his statements regarding gun control.

We have watched a failure to support US Special Forces – even set them up to be killed, or assassinate them.

What happens when US Special Forces are more worried about friendly fire than doing their job?

Love to see Charlie Ferguson to a documentary about Libya like the one he did about Iraq.

Saker – Russia looks at what we did to Libya and says no way. What is the incentive to cooperate?

INTERVIEW

“When the rich make war, it’s the poor that die.” ~ Old Russian Saying

By Catherine Austin Fitts

The Saker hears the drumbeats of war. On this week’s Solari Report, Saker and I discuss his latest, A Russian Warning co-authored with Dmitri Orlov and Dr. Eugenia V Gurevich:

“We, the undersigned, are Russians living and working in the USA. We have been watching with increasing anxiety as the current US and NATO policies have set us on an extremely dangerous collision course with the Russian Federation, as well as with China. Many respected, patriotic Americans, such as Paul Craig Roberts, Stephen Cohen, Philip Giraldi, Ray McGovern and many others have been issuing warnings of a looming Third World War. But their voices have been all but lost among the din of a mass media that is full of deceptive and inaccurate stories that characterize the Russian economy as being in shambles and the Russian military as weak—all based on no evidence. But we—knowing both Russian history and the current state of Russian society and the Russian military, cannot swallow these lies. We now feel that it is our duty, as Russians living in the US, to warn the American people that they are being lied to, and to tell them the truth. And the truth is simply this: If there is going to be a war with Russia, then the United States will most certainly be destroyed, and most of us will end up dead.”

The Saker gives us an update on the Ukraine and the impact, along with events in the Middle East and US and European sanctions, on the Russian economy. We cover the ancient history of tensions between Russia and the Western nations and revisit why the Russian people are so supportive of Putin’s efforts to resist accommodation. Saker suggests some of the actions we can each take to reduce the chances of war.

Our discussion raises important questions about the shift to a multi-polar world. If the US offers countries two options – submit to multinational corporate control or be destroyed – it is only a matter of time before the world shifts into a deflationary spiral or war. Where are the incentives to cooperate and honor agreements that are the basis of global economic growth?
