Let's Go to the Movies

In Let's Go to the Movies, I will review The Night Manager, an adaptation of the John le Carré novel by the same name. It tells the story of a British effort to indict and prosecute a major arms trafficker. The intelligence operatives are faced with two enemies – the arms trafficker and the upper echelons of their own government, whose interests are intertwined with the lucrative trade. Tom Hiddleston is particularly brilliant in the role of the uncover agent.

HOW DO YOU CLEAN UP THE WHOLE SYSTEM?

INTERVIEW

“Cut and run or cut-and-run is an idiomatic verb phrase meaning to “make off promptly” or to “hurry off”. The phrase originated in the 1700s as describing an act allowing a ship to make sail quickly in an urgent situation....The phrase is used as a pejorative in political language, implying a panicked and cowardly retreat...” ~ Wikipedia

Our 3rd Quarter Wrap Up will be presented throughout October in four parts:

- News Trends & Stories, Parts I and II For the next two weeks we will highlight the top news trends and stories with Dr. Joseph Farrell. This coming week in Part I, we will look at Economy and Financial Markets and Geopolitics, including a serious discussion of “cut and run” – the growing signs that insiders are pulling significant money and assets out of the US government and spinning out and cashing out of major investments and liabilities. The following week in Part II, Dr. Farrell and I will cover Science and Technology and The Big Questions. Make sure to check our web presentation for the complete listing with links of News Trends & Stories for the 3rd Quarter.
- Financial Market Roundup: In the third week, we will combine a written Blockbuster Chartology from master technician Rambus with Catherine’s Equity Overview. Make sure to check our web presentation for the complete roundup of financial market charts on September 30 which will be available next week.

- Theme – Investment Screening: Can We Filter for Productive Companies?- Finally, our big theme. We look at the investment screening industry and ask whether it is possible to filter for fundamentally productive companies. In August, investors in private prison companies found their stock price down by almost 50% as a result of changes in government policies. Wells Fargo stock is down 18% this year, in part because of a scandal related to falsification of accounts. As the debt-financed growth model comes to an end, investors in companies that are not fundamentally productive face a new set of risks.

In Money & Markets this week I will discuss the latest in financial and geopolitical news, as well as my latest commentary, “Crazy Man vs. Criminal: Cut and Run, Monica Lewinsky II & Real Trouble Ahead.”

Thank you for your email updates. This one came at a perfect time. I just finished watching "Back to Eden" on vimeo and was very impressed. I would love to see you have this man on for a future talk session. So many people could benefit from this.

After years of back-breaking toil in ground ravaged by the effects of man-made food growing systems, Paul Gautschi has discovered a taste of what God intended for mankind in the garden of Eden. Some of the vital issues facing agriculture today include soil preparation, fertilization, irrigation, weed control, pest control, crop rotation, and PH issues. None of these issues exist in the unaltered state of nature or in Paul's gardens and orchards.

"Back to Eden" invites you to take a walk with Paul as he teaches you sustainable organic gardening methods that are capable of being implemented in diverse climates around the world.

Take care and may God bless all you do for his glory.
We are going to implement this strategy on our church property and hopefully, God willing, we will be able to feed our entire church family in 2-5 years

Hi Catherine,

We found this article to be interesting - we weren't aware of all these disclosures (see 1/3 down into the article):

<https://www.transcend.org/tms/2016/09/new-film-tells-the-story-of-edward-snowden-here-are-the-surveillance-programs-he-helped-expose/>

SNOWDEN – interesting story.

Hi Catherine,

In the 2015 Annual Wrap-Up, you said you woke up on January 1st 2016 and just had a feeling this is going to be a very auspicious year. I hope good things are happening for you and the entire Solari team. Since I subscribed a few months ago, I have been listening to your podcasts and visiting your site daily. I love learning from you, and I feel I now better understand how the financial system works. Thank you so much for doing what you do. It is truly a service many people need and want.

My question today is: You have a post on the site of a PBS Frontline interview from 2012 of Cathy O'Neil, a former quant on Wall Street. If possible, could you please review her new book Weapons of Math Destruction.

Have ordered – have over 100 books piled up under Read ASAP....so can't promise I can read it soon

Catherine,

I keep seeing the signs that point to WW III between NATO-US and Russia/China. Who wins in such a scenario? There are over 100 radioactive spent fuel dumps at sites in the US alone (Others in other countries, as well) -- all of which depend on cooling water from electrically- powered pumps. Obviously, these dumps will quickly run out of electricity in WW III resulting in radioactive fuel catching fire and entering the atmosphere. This will make the earth's surface uninhabitable to humans for millions of years.

Who wins in such a scenario? Those living underground or off-planet? Alien species that can tolerate the high radioactivity for millions of years? I do not understand where the Neo-cons think they are going with this...

No one wins. I don't understand where the neocons are going with this unless they just want to extinguish all life force – spiritual warfare.

Good morning Catherine,

Thanks for the Local Economy interview and links. Fort Collins, Colorado, my home town, has a good local food system in development.

I had the intention to email you if you have any plans on doing a luncheon in the Denver area, and then, In the last introduction section you mention that you are coming to Boulder after the October 9th luncheon in Dallas.

Are you going to do a small luncheon while in Boulder, or do you have availability for coffee, wine, lunch or dinner ? I would love to meet any co-conspirators in the area, besides my own spiritual warrior students. A few of them have signed up for your reports.

Can you provide more information about the tv interview and station, so I can view it and share?

Again, I greatly appreciate the holistic support you provide in how to thrive outside the matrix and co-create a sovereign life, free of the Weitioko virus. I appreciate how much your eyes are wide open, and still you stay in a spiritually positive orientation, finding the Beauty around you! Thank you! This isn't easy

Hi Catherine,

Oh boy.....I just saw a movie trailer for the upcoming Tom Hanks movie, Inferno, showing in October in IMAX theaters. It's about a manufactured virus that could kill half the population.

Are we being prepared for something.....or is it just something they consider to be an "interesting" topic?!

Thanks,
Jo

Lots of concerns and investment in biowarfare – another aspect of DARPA Book I am listening to.

Dear Catherine,

So looking forward to your next chat with Saker. The role of Vladimir Putin and Russia in creating that multipolar world is most interesting. Even as he continues to be demonized by the Western media. From what I can tell, Putin seems to be the sanest leader out there (banning GMOs, restoring old-style morality, strengthening the Russian Orthodox Church, resisting Western baiting into a world war, etc.). Yet it's also odd how Russia Today almost resembles Al Jazeera (progeny of the BBC) in the way it promotes those false, politically correct values and views enamored of Western liberals ("climate change", "gender fluidity" and the like). Would you know if RT is a Putin propaganda arm, or is it really a Western-founded/funded media outlet like China Daily is for China (I think it was started by Newsweek)?

Tangentially, I'm not sure if many know that the documentary film on Ed Snowden, "Citizen Four," is available to stream online - for free, legally. Two such websites are:

<http://documentary-movie.com/citizenfour/>

<https://thoughtmaybe.com/citizenfour/>

So all this Snowden business happened in 2013. After much hyperbolic outrage by the mainstream media at the time, nothing has changed. Did the public even get upset about it? About the blatant lies of those govt people who were questioned by Congress?

Have we all just become so used to the way things have become - that such revelations don't matter anymore? So long as we have the convenience of being "connected" to whoever, whatever, wherever via our cellphones and laptops?

Or it be that the public just feels helpless in the face of such knowledge? Since the mundane activities of modern life have been structured by the telecommunications and banking industries in such a way that makes it extremely inconvenient NOT to, say: have a credit/debit card account, surf the 'net, communicate via email, cellphone or text message, shop online (especially for those who live in a small town with few bricks-&-mortar stores offering more than the usual basic goods), purchase airline or other transportation tickets, etc., etc..

How, then, does one opt out of this Big Brother society we now live in - short of becoming a recluse and moving to a remote island, mountain, or cave without modern conveniences (yet likely still visible via satellites and drones, perhaps)? It's well-nigh impossible to remain connected to society (yet an admittedly increasingly narcissistic and deluded, as well as toxin-soaked and overworked one) while giving up these things just for the sake of one's privacy.

Come to think of it, that might not even be such a bad idea. Except that I'd really miss having my wonderful, weekly Solari Reports!

Putin and the Russians – more complex story – 2005 story.

There is a lot you can do to protect yourself and to remove your support – if enough people do it it will make an enormous difference. I would start with the coming clean article and related Solari Reports – for me it is a life long process.

Dear Catherine,

I read your public articles and videos and I thought you might be interested in this recent article. Very chilling, even horrifying, but I feel less crazy because the author says what I've thought for a very long time. The Clinton/Bush nexus is a criminal operation, Hillary is going to become president (be installed as president) and we are going to war with Russia.

Thanks for your good work,

It's not only a mad world, it's a very seriously oppressive world.

I have felt were a planet under quarantine and control of some (parasitic) force recently that's the good news, because the embodied awareness of such is the liberation

EXCELLENT DESCRIPTION – Stop feeding the parasite.

Dear Catherine,

I knew I should've searched out and listened to Jon Rappaport's talk on Snowden (6-21-2013) before watching a single minute of "Citizen Four". Jon's talk gave me all I needed to know about that "story". It was very naïve to buy into the Snowden fairy tale like that - but sometimes we desperately want to believe in heroes in these awful times, so we succumb to another hoax.

The first red flag was this last frame in the end credits (see screen cap below): seeing the 4th entry under "This film is made possible by supports from..." and then the top two names under "Additional Funding" all gave me pause. Something wrong with that picture. Those groups aren't exactly known for supporting agendas that genuinely challenge establishment/mainstream thinking.

This film is made possible by su

SUNDANCE INSTITUTE DOCUMENTA

MACARTHUR FELLOW

ANONYMOUS WAS A W

And then, there was also the small but niggling detail of Snowden's girlfriend flying to Russia to join him with not even token obstruction from his handlers.

And so we're all being played once again. Of course, the faux outrage by the MSM - while also giving Snowden loads of exposure - should've tipped me off right away. Never paid much heed to the Snowden story before watching "Citizen Four" but come to think of it, that was a pretty slick "real-life" documentary complete with clean-cut hero and cloak-and-dagger plot involving those special "journos"!

So one had to reconsider another much-publicized "whistleblower" of the day - Julian Assange. Funny that he has survived quite well on an invisible source of funds for years now at the Ecuadorian Embassy in London. Like a good "rebel," he naturally has to help out the kid "exposing" the NSA's dirty tricks (which, incidentally, we already knew about for years now). Was this "exposé" done to serve as a warning to would-be real whistleblowers? Was this just another distraction from yet another something far more nefarious taking place?

In closing, would just like to once again thank you for all that you do. Very much look forward to hearing Saker's thoughts on this week's Solari Report. God bless you all and keep you safe!

Warm regards,

Suspect part of the play was improving the status of contractors vis a vis NSA Incremental process

Dear Catherine:

I have just watched the latest 30 minute interview by David Wilcock in his "Cosmic Disclosure" series entitle: "Validating the 20 and back program with William Tompkins." I urge you to watch this.

Don't know Tompkins – look like he is being used to affirm a presentation I consider likely to be full of disinformation.

Dear Catherine,

In my small town in Eastern Oregon, the regional airline abruptly stopped serving our airport! In response, the rental car dealer at the airport will close in about a week. In total, many jobs are gone. **Maybe** a different airline and a different car rental chain will step in within the next few months--we shall see if that happens.

It wouldn't surprise me if more businesses folded very quickly-- just like this-- over the next year(s).

Building out global connections/networks/conversations and regulation....

Hello Catherine,

I am a new subscriber, found you on Greg Hunter and would like to ask you 3 questions. I am not holding you liable to your response. I am the President of a small Investment group in Florida. We have been buying and brokering Mortgages for the past 4 years. We buy mostly owner financed mortgages. We also buy defaulted notes and then work them out with the borrower to keep them in their home if we can.

Here are my questions.

1. In order for my current company to compete with the others we need to raise private capital. Currently we have just used friends and family capital and we are at our end. We buy these performing notes at a discount and can pay between 6-10%. Would you have any advice or thoughts as to how to do so?

Network with local investment advisors, rotary and chamber, CPAs and Lawyers – local investment groups, tightknight

2. My wife is Ukrainian and every summer we spend the summer in Kiev. This past summer I meet with some of my friends that had worked at A SWISS BANK and were very high up. They said that they had left and they are very nervous about the western banking system. Because of this they have left and are now working in private banking in Croatia. I got to thinking that if something large happens in the US market that I need to hedge my bets. As a result I have discovered that REMAX recently opened franchise opportunities in Ukraine. There are currently 4 offices in Kiev and they are all privately owned. The Kiev economy (not the same as the rest of the country) I growing. Western's are coming in and building like crazy. I have seen it with my own eyes. I am strongly considering opening a franchise because the Ukrainians still pay for housing with CASH. My thought is if the credit system comes to a halt again that they will be able to keep paying. Could you give me any thoughts on how other countries would be affected if our credit system dries up.

Impossible to say – way too fluid. Ukraine is scheduled to take quite a beating, but that does not mean that Kiev will not do oK

2. My third question is that I have a current opportunity to buy and sell houses here in the west coast of FL. Can you give me any incite on the potential roads that the FL REAL ESTATE Market may take.

Nope – a lot depends on the election and which way things go on the cut and Run after the election with the reengineering of the federal budget.

From reading this you may think that I am crazy because I am bouncing all over the board. I can assure you that I am not. I am currently 34 and have been a business owner since I was 20 and very grounded. It is that for the past year I have this instinctual feeling inside of me that there in impending doom coming and that I have started to look at ways to hedge my life. I don't like this mental ping pong and need to find a resolution.

In a way since I have traveled all over the world I am sad to say that I am not proud of my country. I am proud of a certain portion of our population but the other parts I am not. I am not proud at all of our government. It is crazy, I was living in East Ukraine in 2014 when the war started. I was in a city that was bombed. Then and now I feel safer over there than here!!!

I know you are very busy and thank you in advance for taking the time to read this and consider a response.
