

THE SOLARI REPORT

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to The Solari Report.

Today is January 12, 2017.

I am Catherine Austin Fitts and I am delighted that you could join me this evening.

EVENTS –

Dr. Joseph Farrell Crowdfund – more good news – two of our original donors have given us a $4,000 match for January. With your generous help, we have raised over $16,000. If we raise an additional $1,078 this month with their match we will have enough to fund Phase I – really excited because January is Joseph's birthday.

$1,078 to get full match and complete Phase I.

Prayer Book - Christmas Card for 2017 – prayers for 2017 – email, call or send Self addressed stamped envelope to our PO Box and we will send you one back. They are free.

Next Week come back on Australia trip in 2018.

Working on a lunch in Louisville in March and a trip to Palm Springs in April. Will keep you posted.

THEME TONIGHT: When a lie does not work, double down on the Lie

Washington – several months of double down is reaching byzantine proportions.

Combination of things going on at once making for a bad cocktail

1. Clinton supporters hoping to interfere with inauguration, pointless and childish, but hoping to get something by throwing mud up on the wall....going nowhere
2. Effort to blame July 2016 DNC Hack on Russians – make Russia out to be boogeyman.
3. Terror of what is in Anthony Wiener laptop and allegations of money laundering and pedophilia
4. Corporate media in a death spiral – trying to win back hits from on line media that is in a state of high entertainment and clickbait
5. Serious tensions between Trump team and CIA – briefing, leaks, waste, key governance issues teed up by Chuck Shumer, CIA loss of control of fake news cartel
6. Lot of people who see their gravy train evaporating under new Administration

PICTURE: People who live in a bubble as the money and music stops

Some fact patterns:

Russian hacking – who paying

Russian government

Nothing to do with people providing to Wikileaks

July - Clinton personal server e-mails

Seth Rich assassinated

July – DNC e-mails

October – Podesta's e-mail

Allegation: Russian hacked the DNC – and turned e-mails over to the person who turned them over to Wikileaks = my opinion = almost no chance of being true. Likely: Insiders and US intelligence

Did the Russians and everyone else try to hack to the DNC = likely 99% true, especially given Russian ISPs were eve hacking Solari, why would they not be hacking DNC??

One truth pointed out by multiple parties: Everyone is hacking everyone all the time

Solari – hacked by Ukraine after Part I went up—had to be at request by someone in America –

This problem started with NYPD and FBI NY Office delivering election to Trump at end of October with a copy Anthony Wiener laptop

All of Washington went into a panic about what the faction behind Trump had in terms of money laundering, bribes and pedophilia – aka control files.

Meantime, large donors tell DNC no more money without lessons learned from what happened. Dems needed a scape goat

Fake news going going...with Russia as the boogeyman

The Putin Christmas address – Pedophilia

Lindsay Graham

Rubio ridiculous behavior at Tillerson hearing. Tillerson handled it well.

McCain – fake document to FBI

BuzzFeed and CNN: Fake Document on Trump Projective Identification

Why

Accuse innocent party of what you are doing so when you are attacked you can say, see more of the same, or you are just trying to disinfo me.

Trumps face – Business vs DC. = Shocked at the # of parties with no economic or psychological boundaries - Scorpions.

Signal real governance problem to world

Good news – Nominee hearings going well – important to have players in place – Sessions, Tillerson, Carson, Mattis, Pompeo – Business of government turtles forward despite lunacy.

Schumer TV interview about CIA – illuminating real governance issues
Financial Times – Trump winning

FBI Post Clinton E-mails: From Napolitano

Then, last Sunday evening, during the NFL playoff game between the New York Giants and the Green Bay Packers, the FBI posted on its website more than 300 emails that Clinton had sent to an unnamed colleague not in the government -- no doubt her adviser Sid Blumenthal -- that had fallen into the hands of foreign powers. It turns out -- and the Sunday night release proves this -- that Blumenthal was hacked by intelligence agents from at least three foreign governments and that they obtained the emails Clinton had sent to him that contained state secrets.

Sources believe that the hostile hackers were the Russians and the Chinese and the friendly hackers were the Israelis.

Last Sunday's revelations make the case against Clinton far more serious than Comey presented it to be last summer. Indeed, Sen. Jeff Sessions, who has been nominated by Trump to be attorney general and who has been a harsh critic of Clinton's, told the Senate Judiciary Committee this week that he would step aside from any further investigation of Clinton, thereby acknowledging that the investigation will probably be opened again.

One of the metrics that the DOJ examines in deciding whether to prosecute is an analysis of harm caused by the potential defendant.

Now DOJ IG announced they are reviewing FBI investigation

Rumours Clinton legal team negotiating with White House for full pardon

Does this dovetail with Wikileaks leak related to Clinton personal server?

So Cybersecurity and Russian Scapegoating continues apace?

Competition with Russia – what is it really about

- National sovereignty – stand in way of global currency and central control – unipolar vs multipolar world
- Competitor for mastery of space
- Real disagreements in values
- Arctic circle oil deposits
- Competitor for arm sales

CYBERSECURITY – major and important issue. Digital space and systems have no integrity – lawless with no enforcement. Has the potential to destroy the global economy.

All the yapping about globalism, it is not populism that is destroying globalism it is the absence of legal and financial and digital integrity that is destroying globalism.

January is usually the time - Announcement of store closings and layoffs in the retail world

Controlled demolitions:

This is what the squeeze looks like.

Macys closing 68 stores, Sears closing 158 stores.

Forbes – impact on securitized mall loans?

14 major U.S. retailers closing 100 or more stores

1. Aéropostale

Number of store closings: 154

Aéropostale, the teen clothing retailer has announced the closure of 113 U.S. locations and 41 stores in Canada.

The company said in a statement the plan is, "to right-size their operations by closing unprofitable stores. Such closures will help stem the Debtors' significant cash burn, increase the Debtors' liquidity, and allow the Debtors to focus their reorganization efforts around a smaller footprint of more profitable store."

2. American Eagle

Number of store closings: 150 over three years

The company cited mall traffic as one of the problems as comparable same-store sales dropped 10%, according to Reuters.

3. Chicos

Number of store closings: 120 stores between fiscal 2015 and 2017

Chico's FAS, the parent company that operates Chico's, White House Black Market, and Soma said it would cut 240 jobs and close 120 stores between 2015 and 2017. According to New-Press.com, the job cuts and store closings are part of the company's organizational realignment.

4. The Children's Place

Number of store closings: 200 between fiscal 2015 and 2017

Resulting from a soft outlook, the children's store plans to downsize quite a bit, and already began the downsizing process back in 2015. But, the company is encouraged in its recent sales and margin gains.

5. Finish Line

Number of store closings: 150 by 2020

"These stores that we closed and will continue to close are stores that are low-volume stores for us that have been on the declining sales and profit trends for years," said CEO Sam Sato in the earnings call.

6. Hancock Fabrics

Number of store closings: 255/all stores

The retailer filed Chapter 11 bankruptcy in February, declaring the end of 59 years in business in April of this year, closing locations in 37 states. The reasons? Barbara Farfan, Retail Industry Expert at About Money thinks the retailer lost touch with consumers, and it also had an employee pension and benefits program that was greatly underfunded.

"...much like the Circuit City, Borders, and Linens 'n Things chains that passed into extinction before it, Hancock couldn't win in the survival-of-the-fittest environment of shrinking demand, and unlimited competition that defines the rapidly evolving U.S. retail industry," she wrote.

However, according to the Dallas Morning News, arts and crafts retailer Michael's recently purchased Hancock Fabrics' brand name and intellectual property earlier this month.

7. Macy's

Number of store closings: 100

Recently, Macy's said in a press release that it plans to close 100 stores and concentrate on better performing locations. Macy's had already announced it was closing at least 90 stores due to the changing retail landscape.

8. Men's Warehouse/Jos. A. Bank

Number of store closings: 250

Unable to recover from an ill-advised merger two years ago, parent company Tailored Brands Inc. is downsizing.

"We have determined that outlet stores, which collectively were not profitable, are not sufficiently differentiated enough from our core offerings and have not resonated with our customers," CEO Doug Ewert said in a statement.

9. Office Depot/Office Max

Number of store closings: 400

As a part of the Office Max/Office Depot merger, Office Depot had announced it would close at least 400 stores by the end of 2016, and by the end of this year, it should be at its goal. Last year, the company closed 181 stores, while it closed 168 stores in 2014. This year it plans to close 50 stores.

10. Sears & Kmart

Number of store closings: 142

The recent news that parent retailer Sears was going to close 64 Kmart stores nationwide pushes the grand total of store closures for Sears and Kmart up to 142. In April, the company announced it would be closing 68 Kmart and 10 Sears stores. And just this week, Business Insider reported that Sears Holdings would close an additional 64 Kmart stores by December.

11. Sports Authority

Number of store closings: 140/all stores

After filing Chapter 11 bankruptcy and selling its remaining merchandise to liquidators, Sports Authority is officially no more.

12. Walgreens

Number of store closings: 200 between 2015 and 2017

"After a rigorous analysis, the company has identified additional opportunities for cost savings, primarily in its Retail Pharmacy USA division," the company said in a press release. Significant areas of focus include plans to close approximately 200 USA stores; reorganize corporate and field operations; drive operating efficiencies; and streamline information technology and other functions."

13. Walmart

Number of store closings: 154, but opening 300 worldwide

"Actively managing our portfolio of assets is essential to maintaining a healthy business," said CEO Doug McMillon in the press release. "Closing stores is never an easy decision, but it is necessary to keep the company strong and positioned for the future. It's important to remember that we'll open well more than 300 stores around the world next year. So we are committed to growing, but we are being disciplined about it."

HERO

2016 Hero: Julian Assange

By Catherine Austin Fitts

"It's truly astonishing that some guy hiding in the Ecuadorean Embassy is doing more for TRUTH in this election than all the American press."

~ James Woods

“Can’t we just drone this guy?”

~ Secretary of State Hillary Clinton suggesting a way to silence Julian Assange

For almost five years, Julian Assange, the editor-in-chief of WikiLeaks, has lived in a tiny space in the Ecuadorian Embassy in London, evading a sexual assault and rape charge trumped up by Sweden at the behest of the Americans.

Assange founded Wikileaks in 2006 and came to prominence in 2010 when WikiLeaks published a series of leaks, allegedly provided by Chelsea Manning on the Afghanistan and Iraq war.

Throughout 2016, Assange and Wikileaks provided a steady flow of leaked documents related to the US Presidential campaign:

- In July, e-mails to and from US Secretary of State Clinton, including personal server e-mails related to the war in Iraq.
- In July, e-mails of Democratic National Committee (DNC) personnel.
- In October, WikiLeaks began a steady release of e-mails of John Podesta, Clinton’s campaign manager.

Assange maintained his composure under extraordinary stress – pressure by Swedish enforcement, the apparent “suiciding” of his attorney, a cat burglar discovered on the walls of the Ecuadorian Embassy, and loss of Internet access, among other assaults.

His most endearing act was to offer a reward of $20,000 for information leading to the conviction of the murderer of Seth Rich, a DNC staffer assassinated two weeks prior to Wikileaks posting of the DNC e-mails.

If you think transparency upsets the DC establishment, wait until you see what removing assassination as a tool of statecraft will do.

Expect a lot more from Wikileaks in 2017. Who is sitting on more explosive material on the DC establishment? Is it Wikileaks or NYPD and NY FBI who have a copy of the contents of Anthony Weiner's laptop? With Vladimir Putin using pedophilia as an example of Western corruption in his Christmas 2016 message, the DC establishment is feeling its fair share of terror.

Polls regarding the credibility of Wikileaks vs. the American media and intelligence agencies show Wikileaks holding a commanding lead going into 2017.

Latest development: Wikileaks has stated on Twitter that "If Obama grants Manning clemency Assange will agree to US extradition despite clear unconstitutionality of DoJ (US Department of Justice) case."

INTERVIEW

“I see a beautiful city and a brilliant people rising from this abyss, and, in their struggles to be truly free, in their triumphs and defeats, through long years to come, I see the evil of this time and of the previous time of which this is the natural birth, gradually making expiation for itself and wearing out.” ~Charles Dickens

This Thursday we continue our roll out of the 2016 Annual Wrap Up!

We began last week with Part I of our conversation with Dr. Joseph Farrell on News Trends & Stories, covering Economy & Financial Markets, Geopolitics, and Culture. This coming week, will be Part II covering Science & Technology, The Unanswered Questions of 2017, and Inspiration. You can follow along with the selection of stories linked on the 2016 Annual Wrap Up web presentation.

TOMORROW SWITCH IN NEW AUDIO FOR PART I – will have transcript shortly

In all of our Annual Wrap Ups to date, I have told you there is a good chance that the “slow burn “will continue through the next year – not so for 2017. So I encourage you to focus your attention on our discussion of News Trends & Stories, as well as our business and investment scenarios for 2017, when we cover them in our Equity Overview in the following week. Big change is underway – debt party’s over, get ready to rock and roll! I want you to think through what this means to you and yours and how to make sure you are in position to navigate successfully.

In Money & Markets this week I will answer your questions in Ask Catherine. Make sure you e-mail or post your questions.

POSTED INTRODUCTION – Please read; think about controlled demolitions and reengineerings.

“You open up your mail. The first letter says your health insurance premium has been raised 30%. The phone rings – it’s your father. His pension benefits have been cut 50%. Your parents are going to sell their house. They want to know if they can move in with you while they figure out what to do. Your company is downsizing and is offering you a buyout option, so maybe they can kick in with expenses and help around the house. Your neighbor stops by. There is a town hall meeting tomorrow night to discuss a plan to raise property taxes 25% to meet increased municipal obligations and prevent a bond default. Your monthly grocery and utilities bill are up 5% so far this year. Government statistics insist that inflation is running at less than 2%...Welcome to the pressure cooker as the slow burn accelerates.”

Of all the info sites I use, you are the most informative and accurate. Do you see the US dollar loosing it's status as the reserve currency any time soon?

No

See Economist Dangerous and Dominant

Dollars – strongest, most liquid

Euro – under serious stress

Yuan – much too young, China still a regional, not a global superpower

Global borrowings of the dollar

Debt is not a problem – if I can just print it – inflation is but if you offset with deflation, can be managed

If raising interest rates and pulling funds back to NA are successful, could see Dollar Index at 106-110

Remain the reserve currency for quite some time.

Push for digital currency – at the heart of many of the squabbles between Russia and US – Don't have central bank in BIS system.

North Korea

Iran

Stands in the way of global digital reserve currency.

Hi Catherine,

This book has been published and my friends Drs Raye and James Kass who have been involved intimately with the Mars Project.

Since you have a lot of interest in Space related events I thought you might enjoy the book and maybe interview Ray or Jim, sister and brother team.

Hi Catherine,

If I remember correctly, I saw you write somewhere in the comments section of a post your daily regimen of something like the juice of two lemons mixed with some amount of water and baking soda to neutralize any excess acidity in the body. I cannot find it anywhere. Do you mind sharing again?

Thank you.

I read a most scary statistic the other day, at least to me. American debt is currently at 105.4% of GDP. If this is true sounds impossible to get out. then we should be in serious inflation, feeling it coming. What do you think?

We are in a serious inflation– 7-9%

What happens next depends on engineering slow burn and deflation. The controlled demolitions, reengineering and automation are going to be incredible deflating.

Dear Catherine:

I'm amazed at how quickly Donald Trump has begun backpedaling on both his positions and on his campaign promises. Does this indicate to you that maybe powerful forces have now told him that this is really the way that it has to be, otherwise he could face some serious consequences?

Just listened to Engdahl re Trump's real job, war with Iran. It has the ring of truth. Sounds like multipolar world is just a dream. True?

Engdahls piece is mixed in quality so be careful – Point that is true is US power depends too much on force – same thing Mattis said during testimony. We need our power to depend more on inspiration.

PRODUCTIVITY BACKLASH ARTICLE – economic dependence on out of control national state – black budget.

This is why transparency is so important.

Hi Catherine,

I've been spreading the word about the missing money. I've heard you allude to it and looked at your archives. Is there a single list of adjustments made to the federal budget that tracks it? I gather there was a 6.5 trillion dollar adjustment in 2016. To the defense budget? To the federal budget? What about 2015, 2014 etc.? I think you've cited 27 trillion in adjustments in a very few years. I'm active on Reddit and would like to cite a primary source for the figures if one is at hand.

I'm also on Twitter. I cite and retweet you. Thanks for all of your excellent work.

Diane

WILL POST

Dear Ms. Austin Fitts,

I am a longtime listener and fan of yours; I know that you have extensively studied patterns of spending by government. Recently there have been some problems with the roads in my area (Santa Cruz County). After contacting the relevant government officials I was told that there is simply "no money for roads." I am extremely suspicious of this, as gas taxes should provide ample resources to fill potholes and do decent road maintenance (I am friends with an owner of an asphalt company and I understand the usual prices for these things).

My question for you is: how do I investigate this further? How do I determine what is going on? I am a mathematician with a good amount of experience with data and statistics, so I can handle a data-driven approach.

I would greatly appreciate hearing your perspective about this.
