

THE SOLARI REPORT

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to The Solari Report.

Today is Thursday, November 02, 2017

I am Catherine Austin Fitts and I am delighted that you could join us this evening.

THEME TONIGHT: Mueller Launches Halloween Witch Hunt to Drain the Swamp

Manafort is the proverbial swamp critter

Black Manafort & Stone – my one dealing with Stone is he was about the sleaziest man who ever lived – watched him and then equally sleazy NY Times Washington Editor destroy the career of an excellent investigative report from the NY Times

Kemps Chief of Staff who had started at Black Manafort as a was the same.

Reputation was as dirty as it gets outside of CIA covert operations.

Read indictment – nothing to do with Trump campaign

Manafort pleads not guilty – curious to see his defense. Hard to imagine them on the foreign accounts and money laundering.

Hard to imagine they will not get a conviction on least one account.

Squeezing for something on trouble. Trouble is no one will believe Manafort. And given how much Trump backers have riding they will not tolerate Manafort trying to squeeze.

Sex abuse accusations flying

Speed at which GHWB got shut down was noteworthy

Witch trials are on...

Fear and loathing – as the cash flows cut from Global 2.0 to 3.0 the likelihood of this building to something much bigger is rising.

FED HELD STEADY – Maybe rise in December

Economy bifurcated. Look under the carpet not as well as it looks. Too dependent on government money and debt, too dependent on military and force. Falling productivity. Falling savings rate.

Underscores the importance of tax reform.

REPUBLICANS ANNOUNCED BILL TODAY. RYAN WANTS TO PASS BY NOVEMBER 28th.

AGGRESSIVE SCHEDULE. REPUBLICANS WILL GO ALL OUT

Clear Republicans want to produce something that will help working families in the heartland. Trump commitment to his voters despite the need to swing corporate and foreign money back. Appears to be better than I expected

401(k) plans

Despite weeks of arguing among lawmakers, the bill didn't change the 401(k) retirement plans.

State and local deductions

The latest bill ditches a full repeal of the deductions, called SALT, and instead leaves in place state and local property tax deductions up to $10,000. However, other deductions – such as income and sales tax – would be eliminated.

Corporate taxes

The corporate tax rate would be lowered to 20 percent from 35 percent. It's unclear if this reduction would be immediate or gradually implemented.

Mortgage deduction

The plan would drastically reduce the cap on the popular deduction to interest on mortgages to $500,000 for newly purchased homes from the current cap at $1 million.

Child tax credit

The child tax credit is raised to $1,600 from $1,000. The $4,050 per child exemption is also eliminated.

Twitter Ads info and privacy

High-income households

The legislation eliminates the Alternative Minimum Tax, a supplemental tax meant to offset benefits a person with a high income could receive.

The bill also phases out the so-called estate tax – sometimes referred to as a “death tax” by opponents.

Tax filing

The legislation aims to simplify how Americans file their taxes. The filing system would be able to be completed on a postcard with just 15 lines for most Americans.

The plan also shrinks the number of tax brackets from seven to three or four, with respective tax rates of 12 percent, 25 percent, 35 percent and a category still to be determined.

VERY IMPORTANT TO US STOCK MARKET – up app 25% since Trump Win. If tax reform fails this year, expect as much as 5-25% correction.

If instead, it passes and significant corporate funds shift back to the US – as well as billionaires worried about estate taxes – will be watching what those capitals move to make dollar debts harder and more expensive to service around the globe.

POWELL PICK FOR FED

JEROME POWELL

Mnuchin wanted

Why preferred over Yellin

New York, not California

Investment Banker, not academic – more sympathetic on regulatory issues

Compromise candidate for Pilgrams and Ziocons

Brady guy

Went to Carlyle when money started to go missing

If I was Wall Street factions, I would prefer Powell. Given the speed of change you want someone with deep business experience who is known and trusted by various investment interest Mnuchin wants a team play – that is what he is getting.

Looks like and Yale and Harvard endowment pick.

Will not balk at some issues where Yellen would balk and would have the Fed bureaucracy behind her.

Which makes me wonder how many people on her personal and professional roladex got burned out of their homes in Santa Rosa.

Let's Go to the Movies

In Let's Go to the Movies, I will review the movies posted in your 3rd Quarter Wrap Up web presentation that best demonstrate aspects of control. Our team has created a collection of enormously insightful and entertaining selections, including many reviewed on the Solari Report. Here is the trailer from one of my favorite – the Swedish movie As It Is In Heaven. It reminds us that we can help each other break free – and the importance of music and the arts in helping us do so.

INTERVIEW

“Fear is an enemy that can be killed only at close range. The closest range of all is intimacy.” ~ Andrew Vachss.

By Catherine Austin Fitts

This week on the Solari Report, I will present Control 101, the theme of our 2017 3rd Quarter Wrap Up.

For many years, independent media commentators have direly predicted events that did not come to pass. The US dollar was about to collapse. The American economy was also about to collapse. Gold was headed to $5,000 per ounce. True, some pundits were simply marketing fear porn. However, many better commentators were sincere.

For the last two decades, I have been a contrarian in the group. I have said that our economy would “slow burn,” that the dollar was dangerous but dominant – not yet at the point of collapse or replacement. Although I agreed that gold was in a long-term bull market, I thought spectacular price increases were unlikely. When I tried to explain my thinking, I hit a brick wall. My assessment had little to do with classic economics and financial markets. It had to do with my personal experience with the inner workings of our political, economic, and social control systems.

I learned a great deal about control technologies working inside the establishment. Then I added rich insight from 11 years of protracted litigation with the US federal government and three years of additional tax and compliance responsibilities. These years included significant levels of physical harassment, surveillance, smear campaign, and dirty tricks.

Financial professionals would say “I don’t want to go there.” They did not want to discuss the extent to which our current governance system operates by force both domestically and globally. That is, they did not want to discuss control methods such as fake news, smear campaigns, false flags, control files, malicious prosecution and more.

How can we achieve effective use of our time and money unless we “go there” – unless we deal with reality? The truth is that we cannot use time and money effectively unless we do so, which is why we do “go there” in the Solari Report.

My goal for our discussion of Control 101 is to ensure that you have the framework to understand the wide range of methods used to manipulate and control you, in order to immunize you to them. My goal is to help you create ways to free yourself whenever and wherever possible.

In Money & Markets this week I will discuss the latest financial and geopolitical news.

ASK CATHERINE

Dear Catherine,

Thanks again so much for all you do!

I'm wondering about the oath that congress members take to the Constitution. When they come out after any gun violence and speak passionately against the 2nd amendment, wouldn't that be a violation of their oath in that they're not being loyal to our Constitution but rather inciting the People to take action against it?

YES

Shouldn't any criticism or move to strike parts of the Constitution come only from the People? To me, it seems traitorous for members of congress to bash any portion of our Constitution (for any reason).

If they have a legitimate issue, fine to educate. Bashing is in my opinion unnecessary.

Perhaps their criticisms are worded in such a way as to not violate their oath. Could you comment?

Dennigration and debasement leads to harm. So I believe it is very important that they describe any issues in a presentation that shows respect.

Hi Catherine —

Looks like a couple of reports have very recently come out that you would be interested in, if you haven't seen them already.

Fwd: CALIFORNIA WILDFIRES: Geoengineered Firestorms
Terrorize to Advance the Agenda(s) | SOTN: Alternative

News & Commentary Catherine, Is this legitimate? It certainly has the ring of truth.

That was does not look legitimate to me. I would discount.

From the videos and information I have seen so far – even taking a lot with a grain of salt – looks to me like good chance that it was a directed energy attack or similar military or intelligence selective firebombing of the area.

If this is the case, CLEAR ACCELERATION – with profound implications to all of us. We are screaming about North Korea, but we are firebombing Northern California.

There are many possible reasons if it is the case. Agenda 21 is only one of them. Events like this rarely have one reason – stack functions

They include

The need for large tracts of land to expand tech firms for military applications

The need for large tracks of land for foreign and domestic investors

The need to reverse Local GMO legislation

The need to reverse pockets of activist support for succession or other policies counter to the interests of the military industrial complex

The desire to reduce local homeless populations

The need to signal to county and municipal leaders in California that they need to obey military and industrial complex needs

The need to manage areas in danger of earthquakes
The need to protect underground bases and their access to natural resources such as water

The list goes on. Land use and investment patterns over time may solve the mystery.

Criticality of California to military industrial complex – looking years ahead to shut down a Catolina and do in a way that clears land for companies and allies?
